

10 QUESTIONS

when planning for the future
of your loved one with a disability

OCTOBER 1, 2020

10 to 11:15 AM OR 6:30 to 7:30 PM

Planning for a good life for your loved one is a journey.

Carolyn Wheeler -- who has spent too many hours to count around kitchen tables assisting families to plan for the future -- will highlight key questions to consider as you plan and tools that may be useful along the way. An adult sibling will also share her journey to plan for a good life for her brother when their parents are no longer able to provide support for him.

Join us to be energized and supported in your own planning process!

Carolyn B. Wheeler is a native Kentuckian with over thirty years of experience in program development, training and advocacy on behalf of people with developmental disabilities and their families. From 1990 to the present, she has been employed on a variety of projects with the Human Development Institute at the University of Kentucky. She is also, on a voluntary basis, a Power of Attorney and Representative Payee for a woman who has an intellectual disability, receives a Social Security retirement payment from her own work record and has an ABLE account. In 2017, she received the Carl D. Perkins Service Award from The Arc of Kentucky and the Willie Byrd Legislative Award from KY APSE (Association for Persons Supporting Employment First). Carolyn was appointed by State Treasurer Allison Ball in 2019 to the Kentucky Financial Empowerment Commission. Carolyn has a passion for encouraging and supporting people with disabilities and their families to plan for a good life that includes figuring out the "hard stuff" when key family members are no longer able to provide day to day assistance.
